01. "The scientific study of language." Explain the meaning of “the scientific study of language.”

02. Distinguish between the study of the history of a language and the study of the structure of language.

03. Enquire, either, the similarities between linguistics and traditional grammar,

Or the differences between linguistics and traditional grammar.
04. 'Language system' can be divided into two main parts. One of which is the grammar and the other is the vocabulary. Give a brief account on 'Language system' and explain adequately the sub-systems of language.

05. Speech contains varieties. Enquire.

06. 'Linguistics is a practical discipline.' Give your opinion on 'linguistics is a practical discipline.'

07. Give an account on morpheme and exemplify how to identify morphemes in a language.

08. Select one of the linguists mentioned below and write a short note on his contribution to linguistics.
   a) Ferdinand de Saussure
   b) Leonard Bloomfield
   c) Noam Chomsky

*******************************************************