01. ‘A speech sound is a physical event. The purpose of Articulatory Phonetics is to study it.’ Discuss.

02. Point out the significance of ‘speech organs’ in articulation of speech sounds.

03. Describe, with examples, the vowel classification given in Phonetics.

04. Introduce ‘Stop Sounds’ given in the IPA chart and describe those in a language known to you.

05. Introduce ‘Nasal Sounds’ given in the IPA chart and describe nasalization with examples.
06. Describe co-articulation.

07. Describe the significance of suprasegmental features in communication.

08. Write notes for the following topics:
   a) Diphthongs
   b) Aspirated sounds
   c) Retroflexion
   d) Pitch