1. "Language is a living organism which cannot be defined by words or phrases." Discuss.

"The objective of the subject of Psycholinguistics is to study the process of language in the mind." Explain.

2. "Critical period can be concerned as the most important period for the development of language of a child." Discuss.

3. "Language skills are controlled by the brain." Explain this fact with evidence.

4. Discuss with giving examples, the special characteristics of the condition of mental retardation and their language.
05. "The study of meaning is compulsory in Linguistics. However it is studied in other subjects as well." Discuss.

06. "Analyze the semantic units in Language.

07. Describe how meaning of Deixis is context bound.

08. Explain how speech Acts differ from other language texts.

*******************************