01. "The concept of health could not be restricted to the mere protection from germs and injuries." Review this statement in relation to modern concepts of health.

02. Describe the development of biopsychological model of health and explain the scope of Health Psychology.

03. Describe in brief the structure and function of the nervous system and explain two organic illnesses related to it.

05. “Stress is a silent killer.” Review this statement with reference to the biochemical basis of stress.

06. Investigate the psychological basis of either cardiovascular disease or hypertension.

07. Discuss the importance of replacing the modern industrial social values with traditional social values in controlling non-epidemic illnesses.

08. Explain with examples how the childhood personality disturbances affect the adulthood mental health.

09. Examine the moral responsibility of the doctor towards his/her patient.

10. Why has death become a painful experience to the modern man? Answer from a psychological viewpoint.

********************************************************************************